December 20, 2020The Fourth Sunday of Advent<https://bible.usccb.org/bible/readings/122020.cfm>

Alleluia, alleluia.

Behold, I am the handmaid of the Lord.

May it be done to me according to your word.

Alleluia, alleluia.

NEWS

Today is the last Sunday of Advent. We meditate on the peace that Jesus brings our hearts and our world as we await the birth of our Lord Jesus Christ.

As we approach the joy of Christmas - Liturgy of the Hours - Join us Monday, Tuesday and Thursday this week to pray morning prayer at 10:00 am in the church. All are welcome! On Wednesday - we will pray morning prayer at 11:00 am, followed by the divine mercy chaplet at 11:30 am. Masks and social distancing required.

To download a wonderful app companion, visit: <https://divineoffice.org/welcome/>

Decoration for Christmas : Tuesday, December 22nd at 10:30 am, following morning prayer, we will decorate the trees and church for Christmas. Bring a poinsettia (that you can take home after Christmas) to help us decorate. If you can not help on Tuesday, bring your poinsettia to church on Sunday December 20th. We need your help, PLEASE join us!

Our next Catholic Food Distribution is Tuesday, January 5th. Please consider volunteering so that we can serve the community in this vital ministry. It only involves 2-3 hours of your time on the first Tuesday of the month. Call or text Margy Konopacki at 920-370-7193 if you can help.

Galatians: Set Free to Live : Paul's letter to the Galatians speaks directly to the heart of Christians and addresses the most important question we can ask: "What must we do to be saved?" It speaks of the extraordinary gift of salvation that Jesus has won for us, and how we can unite ourselves to Christ's redeeming sacrifice. In Galatians, we learn what it means to have this filial relationship with God the Father, how he honors us as his children, and how we must honor him as our loving Father.

We will begin the eight-week Bible study Galatians: Set Free to Live on Tuesday Evening January 26 at 6:00 PM/Wednesday Morning January 27th at 10:00 AM. Participants will meet every week to view an engaging video presentation followed by a time of lively group discussion and fellowship. For more information or to register contact Ralph Sorrell at (740)701.1206 or by email at ralphsorrellsr@gmail.com.

FREE PICNIC TABLES - there are a few wooden picnic tables outside of our social hall - free to whoever wants to pick them up!

Please sign up to serve as Lectors, Sacristans, Ushers and Cleaners on the sheets in the vestibule or contact Luann Schley ladybug32435@gmail.com.

CCW is accepting donations for Shelter House. Please place donations of toiletries, household goods, and nonperishable food items in the white basket as you enter the church. Thank you!

CHRISTMAS MASS

We pray for the intention of Pope Francis for December:

For a Life of Prayer

We pray that our personal relationship with Jesus Christ be nourished by the Word of God and a life of prayer.

Prayer to St. Michael is being offered at the end of each Mass. It is printed below for your reference.

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray. And do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.
